BOILERPLATE

Global Healing is a US registered 501(c)3 nonprofit organization and UK registered charity, with the mission of providing modern medical technologies and education to the developing world. In order to establish the Republic of Georgia's first pediatric cardiac surgery center, the Jo Ann Medical Center (JAMC), Global Healing was founded in 1994 and worked off a shoestring budget of $65,000 for the following five years. The JAMC surgical center achieved financial self-sufficiency in 2001, and Global Healing has since worked with the local team to create a neonatal intensive care unit, blood bank, catheterization laboratory, and electrophysiology unit. In 2003 Global Healing created a pediatric outpatient clinic on the Honduran island of Roatán, the Roatán Volunteer Pediatric Clinic. The Clinic offers pediatric attendings and third-year pediatric residents a one-month rotation, as well as undergraduates and medical students a one month internship. Global Healing has been instrumental to the modernization of blood banks in Armenia and the Commonwealth of Dominica., Global Healing creates self-sufficient programs in order to empower the local population. ## MISSION

Global Healing works to provide modern medical technologies and education to the developing world by co-opting the support of corporate sponsors, volunteer specialists, likeminded nongovernmental organizations, and local government officials. By combining all sectors of society, Global Healing is successful in creating a program that has the necessary support to continue fruitfully long after Global Healing's active involvement.

FUNDING

Global Healing, receives funding from both public and private sources. Donation amounts vary in size, and many donations are in-kind support. Over the years, Global Healing has received in-kind and financial support from family foundations, corporations, individuals and other nonprofits.
